The Tragedy at Fairplay, Wiss. Dr. C. H. Harney Murders His Step-daughter, Nearly Kilis His Wife, and. Attempts Suicide-Terrible Domestic

[From the Dubuque Herald, 27th.]

The quiet and secluded village of Fairplay, Wisconsin, situated some six miles from Dubuque, was thrown into a condi-tion of the wildest excitement and consternation on Monday evening by the commission in its midst of one of those horrible crimes of which there seems at present to be a perfect saturnalia throughout the land.

At about half-past seven o'clock on that evening Dr. C. H. Harney, a practicing physician and an old citizen of that place, murdered his step-daughter, nearly killed his wife, and closed the tragedy by attempt-ing to put an eud to his own life by cutting family feud. A young man named Brown enced paying attention to Ellen Har-To this the doctor objected, and even went so far as to threaten to shoot him if he attempted to persist in seeing his daughter. The doctor charged Mrs. Harney with favoring Brown's suit, and in using her influence to thwart his authority. In speaking of these matters in his family, the doctor would become very much exerted, and indulge in the most violent and threatening language, frequently using the expression that he "would find a way of putting a stop to these things."

A brief statement of the affair was pub-

On the afternoon of Monday, Mrs. Har-ney weut to the residence of her daughter, and after remaining there a short time, started in company with Mrs. Blanchard, who was boarding with Mrs. Huusacker, to make some calls. It appears the doctor was watching the movements of the ladies, and shortly after the last two named left Mrs. Hunsacker's residence, he buckled ou his revolver and weut out on the street, and walked back and forth apparently laboring under considerable excitement; and alternative and alternative attracted the attention stantum, and it kant alternit; ikant set donn, or though his manner attracted the attention stantum, and studdy a thing out, euny more of those who saw him, no oue had an idea than i kan set down and thing how tew lift that he was contemplating the horrible aton. We have met here jest for fun; and i beleaf that and things, includin truth, hav that he was contemplating the horrible crime he shortly after perpetrated. After a time, but unuoliced by any one upon the street, he followed his wife to the house at which she was visiting. He did not enter, but stood outside the fence and looked toward the house. His wife seeing him, became alarmed and immediately started home, but upon arriving she found that the house are proposed into a men's seeing him, became alarmed and immediately started home, but upon arriving she found that the home home had no a men's seeing him. home, but upon arriving she found that the home, but upon arriving she found that the doctor had preceded her, and was awaiting her arrival. was clinging to her father and using her utmost exertious to frustrate his murderous designs.

As soon as the doctor attacked his dauginter, Mrs. Harney fled from the house, calling for assistance, but hefore she reached the street she was nursued by the murderer, who fired two shots at her, ueither of which took effect. • He continued to pursue, and overtook her just as she was passing down the steps leading from the dooryard to the street, and commenced beating her over the head with his pistol, inflicting several severe and ghastly wounds. At this juncture his son Harrison came up, knocked the pistol out of his father's hand, rescued his mother, and conveyed her to the house of mother, and conveyed her to the house of her neighbor.

The Doctor then returned to the house, com placeutly viewed the body of his murdered daughter, and remarked to Ellen that he was glad the d-d b-h was dead. He then took a small pen-knife and undertook to take his own life. He thrust the knife into each side of his throat, intending evidently to strike the incoder yeln, but in dently to strike the jugular veln, but in this he was unsuccessful. The kulle peuetrated the trachea and esophagus, making severe but not dangerous wounds. It is believed he also attempted to destroy his life with poison, but in this he was defeated by taking an overdose by taking an overdose.

Mrs. Harney is ln a critical condition, but strong hopes are entertained of her recovery,

The murderer is about forty years of age, and bas resided at Fairplay for upwards of twenty years. He is a man of good appear-ance and attainments, but possesses a most ance and attainments, but possesses a most violent and ungovernable temper. Some four years ago he made a murderous assault upon Captain P. P. Stone, an old man, stabbing him two or three times, inflicting wounds from which the Captain unrowly escaped death. The difficulty grew ont of a political discussion.

Ilarney is under arrest, and confined under guard in his own house. A preliminary examination before the local justices was to take place last evening.

The most intense excitement prevails in the village, and among the citizens it is the village, and among the citizens it is universally regretted that justice cannot legally be metcd out to the culprit, by reason of the repeal of the capital punish-ment clause in the criminal code of Wis-

What adds to this feeling is the hardened what adds to this feeling is the hardened bearing of the murderer. He not only per-sists in saying that he is glad he killed his daughter, but expresses regret that the wounds he inflicted upon his wife are not likely to prove fatal. He is a cold-blooded wretch, and no punishment short of hang-ing can atone for his crimes.

President Johnson. In his speech at Richmond, Indiana, last

Thursday, Gov. Morton said: Mr. Johnson was elected by the Union

party of this nation, and is entitled to have that party to support his Administration, unless he shall commit some important error, or shall depart, in some important and vital particular, from the principles upon which he was elected. An impression has gotten abroad in the North that Mr. Johnson has devised some new policy by which improper facilities are granted for the restoration of the rebel States, and that lished in the telegraphic columns of our he is improperly and unnecessarily harry-last issue. Yesterday morning we dispatched a reporter to the scene of the tragedy, whose report, as gathered from the cluzens of the place, is given below.

The family of Dr. Harney consisted of himself, wife, Harrison and wife, Ottavena and Ellen Harney—the doctor's children by his first wife—and a boy twelve yers old, the issue of the present marriage all lights. by his first wife—and a boy twelve yers old, the issue of the present marriage, all living sogether in the same house. The murdered woman was a daughter of Mrs. Harney, by her former husband, and was married several years ago, to Joseph Hussaker, who is now in Idaho.

Against this daughter Dr. Harney entertained an implacable batred, but for what reasons we are unable to learn. Up to a few months ago, Mrs. Hunsaker lived in Dr. H's tamily. At that time she concluded do go to housekeeping, to which the Dr. interposed objections; but she carried out her intentions, and took a house directly across the street from the family honestsed. After she had moved, the Dr. forbade any of his household from visiting learned and the proposition to the state of the possition that it contains, which we have a continuation of the simply that of Dr. forbade any of his household from visiting large across the street from the family homestsed. After she had moved, the Dr. forbade any of his household from visiting large that the large had been acted upon yet, it has been done that the contains the prohibition to the state of the proper of the disloyal States prosper only as they care to the baser acted upon yet, it has been done that the contains this daughter Dr. Harney entertions and took a house directly across the street from the family hone-stead upon yet, it has been done by a unmber much greater than one-tenth. I believe the one thing that has contributed from the side of the sastingly possition than she has evalted position than she has evalted position than she has evalted both and exalted position than she has evalted position than she ha bade any of his household from visiting her, especially directing the prohibition to his wife, telling her, threateningly, that if she went to her daughter's residence he would "find a way of putting a stop to it." These admonitions and threats were not heeded by Mrs. Harney, any further than to make her visits to her daughter less frequent and more stealthy than they might otherwise have been. From this time there was no peace in the doctor's family, and violent altercations—if not blows—were of frequent occurrence, Shortly after Mrs. frequent occurred. Shortly after Mrs. of the rebellion, and against the suppression of an insurrection aimed at the life of the Government. Now that the cause of the Union has triumphed, the Democratic party finds that it can no longer stand upon its old ground; and hence in New York, in warned Brown to discontine his visits, and the recent Democratic convention, they not even went so far as to threaten to shoot him only adopted a Union platform, but with one single exception they nominated Republicaus for all the offices, and that exception was John Van Buren, who has een everything by turns and nothing in

> Among the speakers at a recent Newspaper Festival in Troy, N. Y., was Henry W. Shaw, better kuown as Josh Billiugs, of Berkshire county, Mass., fortysix years of age, six feet three inches in height, and at various times a drover, a steamboat captain and an editor, His characteristic speech I copy in full:

GENTLEMEN AND MISTER CHAIRMAN: her arrival. Upon entering the house she said to her husband, "Have you been looking for me?" Without making any reply, he drew his pistol and attempted to shoot her, but the pistol missed fire. He then caught her by the hair, threw her upon the floor, and comme ced beating her about the face and breast with his fists. At this time, the only persons in the house, besides the doctor and Mrs. Harney, were Ellen Harney, who were up stairs. When Mrs. Harney first called for help, Ellen ran down stairs and seized her father by the collar, and exerted all her strength to compel him to desist, aud it is believed saved her mother from being murdered on the spot by the infuriated fiend.

At the time the first outcry was made, Mrs. Hunsaker and Mrs. Blauchard were sitting on the doorstep of the former's house.

Confederate Staff Officer Present as Detegate in the Chicago Convention-He Voices for McCtellan and the "Fail-Platform -- The Camp Douglas Censpiracy.

Dr. Lanford B. Hunt, of Buffalo, New York, late Medical Director of cavalry forces of the Military Division of the Gulf, furnishes the Buffalo Express the follow-farnishes the Buffalo Express the following statement:

About June 1st, of this year, I was statioued at Selma, Alabama. One morning I received a visit from Col. Cunningham, C. S. A., late Chief of Staff for Gen. John Morgan, of Ohio raid notoriety. The conversation turning upon horse-flesh, Col. C. said that in the summer of 1864 he was ordered from Chicago. Illinois, to Richmond. dered from Chicago, Illinois, to Richmond, Virgiuia, and, not daring to take the cars, he made the entire distance from Chicago to a point in Virgiula, where he could take the cars for Richmond, at the rate of fifty miles a day. Naturally this drew out in-quiries as to what he, a Confederato Colo-mel, was doing in Chlcago in the summer

Col. Cunningham said that he was a delegate to the Chicago Democratic National Convention from a district in Southern Illi-nois, (his residence is in Tennessee,) and that he had the houor of voting for the nomination of McClellan. His real errand there, however, was to release the Confedthere, however, was to release the Confederate prisoners at Camp Douglas. He had 300 picked meu of his own command concentrated at Chicago. Upon these he could rely, and he also had the promise of 3,000 Copperheads to assist him. He said that he found the "Copperheads to be only water snakes. They took to the tall grass." At any rate he got uo aid from them, and he said "because they were the dedest

e said, "because they were the d—dest owards on the footstool." Col. Cunningham further said that with Col. Cunuingham further said that with his reliable 300 men he could, at some less, have taken Camp Douglas the evening hefore the Convention met; that he would have done so if everybody else had been as plucky as Alexander Long, of Ohio; that Long was "game" but that Vallaudigham was a thorough-going coward and his lack of moral courage defeated the whole enterprise.

Col. Cunningham is now, I believe, at Nashville, Tennessee. Should this meet his eye he will recognize the author, and I am personally accountable to him for the above as a correct version of a conversation which had several witnesses. Ho will not dispute it, and I only need to call attention to the facts it exhibits: 1. It shows that at least one Confederate officer of high rank was a delegate to the Chicago Democratic Convention and a supporter of McClellan.

2. That the nuthor of the Chicago platform of 1864, and some of the leaders of that Convention were cognizant of and particeps criminis in an altempt to release some 10,000 rebei prisoners and turu them loose in the streets of Chicago to commence the work of rapiue and bloodshed. H.

The Right Rostrum for Women.

Miss Anna E. Dickiuson, whose grit, pretty eyes, and disposition to catch up the theories of the radical people around her made her half famous at one time, will thank us for giving her a new suggestion. Let her write up a good lecture and deliver it with all her nerve and pluck, upon the corruption of office and the cheapness of republican preferment, the apathy of good eitizens as to how they are governed, and the margin permitted to bad men to govern as they choose. Upon this platform, steadfastly pursued, she may rise to a more use-

Waste and plunder, the greed of office-getting and the faculty which office-holding has to make the purity in the p men's fingers itch,—these are some of the influences which it is a part of the better half of creation to direct if they cannot subvert them. Therefore, let every wife insist upon it that her husband, If he be a fair, true unan, shall give a part of his leisure to organizing for a purer administration; let every unother invoke her sons to secure more protection against license, a severer enforcement of the laws, and that regard for the health of the city which will give the metropolis a cleaner face as well as a clearer conscience. Keath of Gen. Lamorleiere.

We received by the Moravian the news of the death of Gen Lamoriciero, well-knowu by his campaigns in Algeria, and, later, as the Commander-in-Chiel of the Papalarmy. Christopher Leon Louis Juchanlt de Lamoriciere was born in Nantes, February 6 1896, and was been led from an old legiti-urate family. After receiving a military ed-ucation, ho joined the corps of Zouwes in Algeria, at the time of its formation (No-vember, 1830.) He took an active part in most of the brilliant exploits of the French army against the Arabs, and the celebrity of the Zouaves for superior organization of the Zouaves for superior organization was chiefly his merit. On the departure of Bugeaud, iu 1845, he became Provisional Governor General of Algeria; but hoping to exercise a greater influence upon the destiny of Algeria in the French Parliament, he weut, in 1846, to Frauce, and became a member of the Chamber of Deputies, which he retained until 1858.

During the revolution of 1848 he unsuc-cessfully exerted himself, first in favor of forming a new administration under Louis Philippe, and not in favor of the regency of the Duchess of Orleans. He was a promi-uent member of the Constituent and Legislative Assembly; was consplenous in June, 1848, in a fight against the insurgents in Paris, and officiated as General Cavignac's Minister of War until December, 1848. He was a strenuous and unwavering opponent of Louis Napoleon, and after the co of December 2, 1851, was arrested, and de-tained until January 9, 1852. In April, 1860, he was appointed by Pope Pius IX. Commander-in-chief of the Papal troops. Commander-in-chief of the Papal troops. He hoped to make head against the army of the King of Italy, and prevent the unification of that country, but he was defeated by the Italians at Castleidardo, and his troops dispersed. Since then he has lived retired, and uot taken a prominent part in any political movement.—N. Y. Times.

Desperate Fight in Pickens County-Nine Persons Kitled and two Wounded. We get the following account from a source deemed entirely reliable:

source deemed entirely reliable:
On Snuday, August 27th, two citizens of Pickens county, named Gravelly and Nally, went to a church during the hour of preaching, and called for two men who were in the church, and against whom they had an old grudge. The useu refusing to come out. Gravelly, and Nally went in to come out, Gravelly and Nally went in drew their plstels and commenced shooting—shot several times—killed one of the uien and mortally wounded the other, who has since died, and wounded a lady, before the desperadoes could be forced to desist.
On the Wednesday following, Lieutenant Harper, of company C, 29th Iudiana regiment, with three citizens of Cartersville, viz: Thomas Hancock, Bell Collins and Ben. Smith, went to Pickens county for the purpose of arresting Gravelly and Nally.
They found Gravelly and his three sons, also Nally, all in Nally's house, thoroughly armed and prepared to resist an arrest, Messrs. Smith and Collins, as they were citizens, went to entreat them to surrender. As they approached the door they were both shot at and killed. It was about eight o'clock at night. A general fight cusned, lasting nearly half an hour. Two of the desperadoes being then dead, and a third one mortally wounded, the other two rushed out of the house, and attempted to escape by running; one was killed and the otner ying he would surrender, attempted to noot one of the soldiers and was dispatched with the bayonet, Two women, who remained in the house all the while, escaped unhurt.—Roue (Ga.) Courier, Sept. 7.

Newspaper matters were lively at Denyer City on the 15th ult, The editor of the Gazette met the editor of the News on the street and gave him a dangerous cauling. The excitement immediately rose to a high pitch, and while the editor of the Gazette was thrown into jail, the Typographical Union proceeded to expel him from their society. The Common Council at once met and reschnded the vote electing him city printer, giving it to the News, and many business men withdrew their patronage from his paper. The editor la jail immedi-ately published his side of the affair, saying that he had chastised the News man because it was charged in that paper that his chil-dreu, instigated by au older head, had beeu purloining letters from the post office; and that while he could not have thus proceeded on his own account, he could do no less on account of his children. He also says that the Union is chiefly composed of News men, and as for the business men, they con-fessed that their course was prompted under excitement, and without understanding the merits of the case.

The following is from the special Washington disputches in vesterday's Commercial: General Palmer, commanding in the State of Kentucky, had an interview with the President yesterday, relative to the military situation there. General Palmer does not agree with Governor, Bramletto does not agree with Governor Bramlette and the Kentucky delegation who were here a few days ago, that it is necessary to move the negro troops from that State, One thing is certain, General Palmer has not been removed from his command. It is not improbable that the troops will be hdrawn from the interior of the State.

Over one hundred carriages were in attendance, and the sidewalk leading to the portals of the edifice was laid down with Brussels carpet. The groom entered the church by one door, and the bridal cortege by another, to the measured music of a melodious band. The solemn and impressive Episcopal marriage ceremony having been performed by Bishop Potter, assisted by two other clergymen, the bride and groom partook of the sacrament according to the old English custom. Eighty presents were given to the bride, among them a diamond-set watch, a diamond necklace and a bracelet and piu, two bundred years old.

THE SOUTHERN PRESS.

It has been an interesting and not unin structive study to watch the gradual emergence of features, of a determinable physiogoiny and character in the Southern press since the collapse of the rebellion which dissolved for a time public oplnion along with political structures, into chaos. The earlier numbers of "loyal" newspapers from that section were as completely without any characteristics exhibiting their quality and establishing their individuality, as that famous picture of "Daniel in the Lion's Den" in which the artist was obliged to point out which was the Lion and which was Daniel. Out of this blankness, form and significant features are appearing These present, however, a good deal of monotony and a certain uniformlty of ugly scowl towards the North. Unlimited and indefatigable laudation of President Johnson is almost uniformly associated with the expression of bitter hatred against the party which elected him, and of gushing thankfulness for the prospect of an alliance with the Northern Democracy. By the term radical-which stands for the same grade of obloquy that "Yankee" aud Lincolnite" did a few mouths ago-they mean a majority of the Republican party.

And their invectives against radicals have the same absurd venomous tone which characterizes the language of copperhead journals in the North, as also that of pseudo, pro-slavery Union journals. The President is openly declared to be the "breakwater between the bailled and unhappy South, and the torrent of Northern fanaticism" which is supposed to be biding its time for engulfing that prostrate region with an irresistable and all-swallowing tide of ruin.

The Mobile Register and Advertiser speaking of the President's policy and acts thus far, says:

Ho has done this despite the loud and ngry clamor for extreme measures which as been kept up by the radical party at the North and its scattered emissaries a the South. That party was all-powerful at the White House but yesterday, and it must the South. require no ordinary degree of firmness t resist its pressure to-day. The object of those who oppose his wise and human pol-icy is to stay the work of reconstruction. crush the young verdure of the olive branch end once more to 'Turn the sweet milk of concord into heli,' in order that in the further wreck of our so-cial and political systems they may divide among themselves the fruits of rapine and plunder.

Without such a pilot at the helm, there is no telling upon what inhospitable shore the reviving fortunes of the country might not be wrecked by the fanatic radicalism which seeks to control them.

Here is a very explicit assumption that the President is resisting a controlling majority of his party, and that this majority is filled with deadly hatred, and infernal de signs towards the people of the South. The Jackson (Miss.,) Daily News, commenting on the President's address to the Southern Delegation says:

This speech is the death-knell of the Radicals. All that we of the South have now to do, is to abide faithfully by the issue-made, and decided by the war, and we have a friend not only in the President, but, as we confidently believe, in a large party of patriots at the North, who, although they can not to-day command a majority at home they control that balance of power which with our aid, must crush the Radicals out of existence. We must be prudent and wise in our counsels, faithfully executing nil that we have promised, and firmly contending for all that is ours.

The Jackson Mississippian, discoursing upon the situation in general, says:

As a choice of cvils, we have determined o return to the Union. As to the great cone of contention which has deluged the country in blood, our convention has prolaimed universal and unconditional eman cipation, What more can the temple of Juggernaut require?

The Mississippian works itself into a fine inoney thus raised to carry forward the freuzy over the abolition tempests and thuuderbolts gathering in the Northern sky, and then turns for consolution to the sympathetic and noble Democracy. Note this touching passage:

There stands the Democratic light-house er vestal lamps all trimmed and burning, as brilliant as a constellation in the heav ens. Her sleepless sentinels are upon the towers, with telescope to the eye, and her life-boats are rowing with might and main

We discover very little in any Southern papers now at variance with these scutiments. The party which elected Abraham Linco n in 1860, aud again in 1864, is hated as heartily as ever, and the same huge and preposterous falsehoods respecting its purposes, which were wielded aforetime to fire the Southern heart, are being reiterated ad nauseam. To say that any party, clique or individual in the North cherishes the motives ascribed by these newly loyal journals to the "Radicals" is to misrepresent in the same way and to an equal degree, with that style of exhortation which precipitated sion of revolt to a ferocious pitch until utter exhaustion terminated the fearful drama.

The effect of such exhibitions of implacable feeling will most assuredly be to arouse the vigilance of Northern patriotism It was an action brought by plaintiff to re- and call out a peremptory and irresistable cover damages ($5000) on account of being veto upon the headlong restoration of the refused the right of suffrage at a charter rebel States to their old positions in the

The demand for investing the negro at | revenue laws. once with the right of suffrage, is based chiefly on two considerations. First, the necessity of a political element in the South to counteract the one which speaks in the above extracts. If the rebel States are to be im mediately restored to participation in the Cave City without prepayment of freight, Government, say these advocates, it is imperatively needed that a different temper and species of loyalty than these journals | bills of lading and freight receipts were represent should at least mingle with that. | ready to be produced confirming his statesecond, the unjust rule of representation ment. which by counting all freemen at the same disfranchised, gives a voter in South Caro- ing then adjourned. lina three times the power oue has in Massachusetts. It is plain that neither of these points can be hastily adjusted to the satisfaction of the country at large. And the more devlish viruleuce these reprganizing rebels show towards "Radicals" (by which they mean the entire Republican party) the length by a loyal Congress,

The South Carolina Convention resolved the other day a suggestion to President Johnson in behalf of universal amnesty, and the utter remission of all penalties for treason, for the following reasons: The late war was not one of an oppresse people against tyranny, but arose simply from misappreheusion on their part; there-fore, not having been strictly in the nature of a rebellion, they suggest to President Johnson the justice and wisdom of not en-torcing the penalties affixed to the crime of ebellion by the laws of the United States. The Palmetto chaps are a wonderfully metaphysical set, but this strikes us as a little the finest distinction we have met with, even from that quarter, where nullificatlon has passed for a fourth of a century as the synonym of loyalty. It seems that revolts against a government, which are founded on figments of the imagination instead of facts which might justify them, are not "strictly in the nature of a rebellion!" We suppose then that highway robbery, where the victim turns out to be a pauper and penniless, should not, in consequence of 'misapprehension" on the part of the robber, be regarded as "strictly in the nature" of that particular offense.

Had the rebels not made this unhappy mistake, had they really been an "oppressed people" striving against "tyrants," the inference is that "justice and wisdom" might require infliction of the penalties against rebellion. The logic of this is ueer; the morals still queerer.

From Mis-issippi we get the intelligence that Gov. Sharkey has accepted the proposition of the military authorities to govern the freedmen of that State according laws governing white people, making them witnesses in court, capable of suing and being sned, investing them practically with the rights of free persons. We wonder whether the radicals will consider this proof of continued treason and disloyalty?-

As the Journal avoids any explicit defini tion of the term "radical" it is a little difficult to determine precisely who are referred to in the above question.

Gov. Sharkey is regarded generally by loyal people, us an amiable gentleman, rather pliable in the backbone, desirous of pleasing all parties and escaping eensure, and having a fervid and persevering squint towards the Senate Chamber of the United States. We are not aware that anybody looks upon him as a contumacious traitor. His militia measure was regarded as simply a bid for popular favor. The success of that measure, and its propriety are not yet established. The objections to it were not based on distrnst of Gov. Sharkey so much as distrust of the "gallant young men," who were ealled on to execute it because o their noble service in the rebel army.

Governor Sharkey himself is a trimmer in the midst of very conflicting gales. Devotion to Mississippi has to be carefully qualified by consideration of the requirements of national authority. The Governor encounters the vexations problem of having to seen re his election at home, and his reception in Washington, And he is keenly alive to the fact that the one does not neeessarily imply the other. This last measure ol his is a capital one, if it can be enforced, and altogether worthless if it eaunot be. Loyal public attention is directed to the people, and popular sentiment in the late rebel States, and not to the Provisional Governors. The Jackson News, which was made the official organ of the Mississippi Convention, denounces this move of Gov. Sharkey respecting negro testimony, "as an encroachment on the rights of white citizens," and says it will "be repudiated by the neople of the State." If the News is right it eannot be enforced, and there is much reason to believe that such is the case. The measure itself is an act of justice so obvious, simple, and fundamental, that it should be incorporated into the constitution-the organic law of every rebel State There is no chance of the freedmen findng protection for their liberty or property without it. It is one of the "irreversible guarantees" which Congress will rigorously exact before admitting those States to their old place. Governor Marvin, of Florida, in his proclamation, refers to it expressly as one of the indispensible measures which the coming Convention must enact, if they expect their labors at reconstruction to be successful, and accepted by the nation. The Mississirpi Convention did not touch it. The South Carolina Convention ditto.

CITY AND GENERAL NEWS.

MEETING OF BOARD OF TRADE .-- At the meeting of the merchants to-day at the Exchange, Mr. Woolfolk, from the Committee, reported that, in answer to his inquiry as to what were the rates of freight from Johnsonville to Nashville, received the rethe rebellion, and which kept up the ten- ply that for the present the rates were thirty to thirty-five cents.

Mr. Gardner reported that he had waited Rickets, of that road, was present, and would make a statement. Mr. Rickets, upon being called for, stated that he had had an interview with Mr. Speed, Collector of Internal Revenue, who said that, by the books of the Railroad liable for some $157,000 for signing receipts without affixing stamps thereto; but that, if $5000 were deposited with him, he would not prosecute the matter, but would use his efforts with the Government to have the the legality of the question. He said that different arrangement, as he had the meror for some reason, had been returned to the company without exacting any pay-

Mr. Levi stated to the meeting that certain merchants of the city were allowed peculiar privileges by the Louisville and Nashville railroad, which were denied him; that certain merchants could ship goods to while he was required to prepay all freight which he shipped to said point, and that There is a good deal about this Americau enterprise that must astonish John Buli rebellion. This is one of the greatest raids that has been made upon England since William the Conqueror left Normandy to settle in England. France has opened the eyes of England somewhat in beating the best English racing stock twice quite recently. Belgium and France are also challenging English prerogative in manufacturing the highest class machinery, and French and Belgic manufacturers are supplying England with machinery. An American Lloyd has now broken in upon the dreams of the English and is as likely to make his name a household word as the English Lloyd is in admiralty and insurance matters. It is a curious fact that J. T. Lloyd has published the first topographical map of the English isles that has ever appeared. England has produced nothing that makes an approach to this, nor ean she do so now, eveu by copying the admirable map of Lloyd, because Lloyd can print it in color, varnish and mount it on rollers, ship it to England and greatly undersell any English work of this kind.

We have diligently explored this map and compared it with the superb maps of Johnstone's great Atlas, the finest work of its kind that had been produced in Great Britain. In that great Atlas there is not a map that makes any approach to the topographical map of Lloyd. The maps of Johnstone's Atlas are executed in the highest style of English art, but they do not surpass, as works of art, this map of Lloyd's, while they do not even pretend to approach it in the immeusity of the information contained in Lloyd's remarkable map.

The British authorities have been engaged nearly one hundred years, at an expense of over seven hundred million pounds sterling, in surveying and mapping the British islands. These maps cover thousands of sheets, and each sheet shows two hundred and sixteen square miles. The mero paper of these maps has cost millions of pounds sterling. Not one of all of the map publishers of Great Britain has ever made the attempt to get up a map from this vast plle of scientific accuracy. More than one hundred years would have been required in reducing scientifically by hand, these ordnance maps, in preparing a correct map of Great Britain, and this would have used up all the capital of the best publishing house of Great Britain.

J. T. Lloyd went over to England and made application for permission to make this scientific reduction. He was in possession of a secret that enabled him to make a reduction perfectly in one second of time. The War Department of the Admi rality consented that he should make copies of these vast fields of British work, little dreaming that he could make a perfect map of the British Isles and sell it in England at price that defies English competition. In 1861 Lloyd sent ten of his best topo graphical engineers and photographers over to England and commenced this great en terprise, and accomplished in three years what could not have been done in a century by any other means than those used by Lloyd. The map publishers of Great Britnin, upon ascertaining what Lloyd was at, held meetings to try and thwart his sales in Great Britain. Lloyd made application to ord Lyons, who intormed him that he, as an alien, could not legally use the ordnance surveys in making a map of Great Britain. and sell it in that empire. Lloyd then applied to Lord Russell, who replied that h knew of "no impediment to your using the ordnance maps for the purpose of making a mnp of the British Isles, nor do I know of any law which prohibits the sale of any maps by aliens in this country." Under this decision Lloyd is overrun with orders from England for this great map. It is sold in Great Britaiu at two dollars, while there is not an English map that approaches the excellence of this that can be bought iu England for less than forty dollars. The pocket map by Lloyd is furnished at two dollars and is aimost indispensable to a traveler in Great Britain. As a companion to these maps, Lloyd has published a nunerical and alphabetical Index to the railways in actual operation in the British Isles up to July, 1865, with the number aud official name of each railway, and its total length, and the names of the extreme ter minal stations on each railway line.

We have spoken thus of this great work because of its great merit, and because the on the Jeffersonville railroad in regard to enterprising publisher, who has already the stamping freight receipts, and that Mr. earned the highest position among American map publishers, deserves all the commendation we can give him for the conceptiou and execution of this gigantic undertaking. This publisher was once a poor boy in this city, engaged in George W. Noble's bookstore. He now surpasses Perthes, of Gotha, the first in Europe, as a publisher of maps. Lloyd offers to send a an error in it and inform him of it.

WOODLAWN RACE COURSE TROTTING RACES .- The crowd in attendance at the track yesterday was quite large. A fine day's sport had been promised, as three races were advertised. When the horses were called for the first race, Mr. Dorsey stated that his horse, Willie Golddust, was not in condition to make the race, and therefore withdrew him. In each of the other two races but one animal appeared, consequently there was no contest. As the Association wished to gratify the crowd they offered a purse of $100 for any animal npon the ground, mile heats, best three in five. For this there were three entrles, Rolla Golddust, Carrie, aud Joett. In the first heat all three got off well together, Rolla Golddust in the lead, Carrie next, and Joett last. There was but a slight contest for the heat, and Golddust came in first, Carrie second, and Joett distanced.

SECOND HEAT. Both animals cooled off well, and came to the string looking much better than at the start. Golddust was the favorite at about sixty to thirty. They got a good start, Golddust iu the lead, which he maintained to the quarter pole, when the driver of Carrie forced her up close, and commenced using his whip. This scared Golddust, when he made a bad break, losing full twenty yards. He could not close the gap, but was close on the mare's heels when she crossed the string.

THIRD HEAT. Both animals came to the score looking She gives a good bill to-night,

IMPORTANT TO TAX-PAYERS.—It has heretofore been stated through the public prints that under an act of the Legislature, at its last session, Sherlffs of the Commonwealth were authorized to add 10 per cent. damage to all taxes not paid by the 1st of October.

By Inspection of the first section of the act it will be seen that it is made the duty of tax-payers to pay their taxes to the Sheriff, at the county soat, or such other place as the Sheriff may appoint by public notice, between the 1st day of June and the 15th day of December. By the second section of the act the Sheriff is required to attend at his office every day, from the 1st day of June to the 1st day of October, to receive the taxes. By the third section of the act 10 per eent, as an additional compensation to the Sheriff for collecting, is to be added to the taxes of all who fail to pay as provided in the preceding sections. The fourth section of the aet prescribes the time and manner of giving the public notice required in the first section, and declares that if the Sheriff fails to give the notice as prescribed, he shall not be allowed the 10 per cent. From the foregoing it would seem that he Sheriff is required to attend at his office,

After the 1st of October, the Sheriff, havng given the notice, must attend at the places he appoints until the 15th of December, when and where tax-payers must attend and pay.

MAN MURDERED IN HUNTER'S BOTTOM THE MURDERER ARRESTED IN THIS CITY .-On Sunday a man whose name we did not learn was murdered and robbed in Carroll county, Ky., by two soldiers lately discharged from the 55th Ky., named Jackson and Thomas Tulleday. The sheriff of the county arrested the two men, but they overpowered him and escaped to this city. They left their earpet sacks in a boarding ouse up town, and hid on the banks of Beargrass ereek. About dusk last evening they came into the city and got their carnet sacks, and were going up Green street, when they were spied by Thomas Ryan and three other policemen, who had heard of the affair. The officers immediately gave chase and a race was had to the vicinity of the pork houses, where the murderers were overtaken. The policemen who assisted Mr. Ryan were Mcssrs. Curry and Suicide.-A young woman, named Matilda Lusk, arrived in this city with her family some weeks ago. The family were not in the best circumstance in life, but still were managing to keep themselves respectably. Miss Matilda formed the acquaintance of a friend, who professed to have a high and tender regard for her. He succeeded in winning her affections, and finally seduced her. After her parents found this to be the case they drove her away from home. She went to the residence of a Mrs. Garrick, on Eleventh street, but she could not bear the shame she had brought upon herself and family. She procured a vial of laudanum, and swallowed enough to cause death. The Coroner held an inquest upon the body. The verdlet of the jury was in accordance with the above.

LOUISVILLE THEATER.-The great sensation play of "Waiting for the Verdiet" was produced at this theater last night to a good audience. The play is one of thrilling interest, and is put upon the stage in splendid style, with new and beautiful seenery. We are sorry that we did not see all of this play. The third and last aet is very interesting, and affected a large portion of the audience to tears. The parting seene between Jasper Roseblade and his wile and children, was as well rendered last night as it is possible to do it. We shall give an extended notice of the play to-morrow. We are proud of the success of Miss copy of the map to any one who may find | Henderson, who uses so much exertion to please her patrons, and bespeak for the play she has produced a successful ruu.

Tennessee Legislature-- Message of Gov. Brownlow -- The Franchise Law -- President Johnson's Reconstruction Policy. NASHVILLE, October 2 .- Governor Brownlow delivered his annual message to the General Assembly to-day. He congratu-lates them on witnessing the termination of the rebollion, and the signal triumph of our country's cause and maintenance of the country's integrity. He says new subjects for legislation have arisen in which the wishes of the loyal constituents of the Repesentatives should be consulted, for the constructed should be constitled, for the consest people are always right.

Amendments and additions to the franchise law are recommended, but I am by no means an advocate of the repeal of that Nor do the loyal people of the State wish uny such sweeping change. The restora-tion of civil law has worked web; prosper-ity is promised in every section. Guilty ity is promised in every section. Guilty rebels should be treated with severity in rebels should be treated with severity in proportion to their offenses—the masses with five or ten years' disfranchisement, the leaders with neither mercy nor forbearance. Immigration should be fosiered and encouraged, and a commissi ner stationed at the East to seeme a portion of the foreign immigrants, with their skilled and maskilled labor.

He is convinced that white and colored people cannot live together politically or

Bonds for the Irlsh Republic. NEW YORK, Oct. 2 .- The Times to-day says the steamers City of Boston and Erin which sailed from this port Saturday, are said to have taken one million of dollars of bonds for the use of the embryotic Irish Republic, and it is currently reported, as soon as these bonds reach Ireland matters will assume a more definite form. A proclamation, also printed here, will be spread broadcast through the land; and so well guarded is every avenue for obtaining the documents, or of interfering with the plan of distribution, it is claimed the bonds have nearly all been subscribed for, and many of them by people whom the government least suspects.

On the other hand, the British Government claims to have known of the shipment of the goods, and have an agent on board the steamer in question, who will at the proper time seize them and turn them ove to the Home Government. In all probability the steamer will be thoroughly searched efore going into Queenstown, or at least before any passengers or freight will be al-iowed to land. Commercial Matters in New York. NEW YORK, October 2.—The speculative activity in stocks continues. The railroad list is excited, and transactions at this morning's board exceed those of any day for many months past. A clique has taken hold of Clevelaud and Pittsburg, and run up the price two per cent at the morning board, with sales of 8000 shares. Michigan Southern also sold largely, closing at a rise of 2½ per cent. Chicago and Alton in large demand for investment, but orders and be filled at the prices. The miscelly large demand for investment, but orders cannot be filled at the prices. The miscel-list is strong and active. Coal stocks continue strong. Government stocks quiet; the gold Treasury stock were especially dull; 5-20s 1/2 lower; 7-30s are 1/4 better. There was a sharp decline in stocks at the second board, owing to heavy realizations of the agitation of the loan question. After the session the market was a little better, and at the last board it was steady. The number of outsiders in the stock market are steedily increasing. The fellowing are the closing quotalions: New York Central 9634, Eric 871, Hudson 111, Reading 11634, Michigan Sonthern 72, Cieveland and Pittsburg 7434, Cleveland and Toledo 110, Chicago and Rock Island 84, Chicago and Northwestern def'd 63%. Phere was rather more demand for money but first class houses was readily supplied at 5 per cent., and no one paid over 6 per cent. The discount market was better sup-plied with sound paper and rates are 7(±10) per cent. The new loan will have no effect upon the money market.

Gold closed at 144. Sterling bills firm at 1087@110. Government stocks are lower and 5-20 bonds down to 1121/4.

There is considerable activity in the boot and shoe trade, and full prices are realized; stock light and manufacturers are selling ahead of production.

The dry goods market very strong for both foreigh and domestic; the trade has improved quite rapidly and a sharp demand for goods generally. Farge numbers of country merchants are here, and prooably there will be a fair business done during the month. A very active speculation has recently sprung up in land trade; the demand runs on improved property above Central Park, and between Fifth and Eighth avenues.

Lots changing hands frequently and prices stendily on the rise.

The following is to-day's business at the office of the U.S. Assistant Trensurer:
Total receipts, $6,439,409 25; total payment, $12,483,203 68; balance, $61,923,372 01. The receipts include, for customs, $480,000; on unt of loans, $200,000. During the last month there was a very good market for wool, with a slight improvement in prices. The amount of domestic fleece and pulled wool sold was quite large, but without any speculative movement. Prices, however, advanced too little to change quotations. The stock has be-

The Tour of the English Capitalists ---

Great Railroad Improvements to be Made. NEW YORK, October 2.—In unnouncing the return of Sir Morton Peto and party, from a tour, the Herald says: Among the reatifying resu'ts of this visit will be the aying of a double track on the Eric Rail-oad from city to junction with the Atlantic road from city to junction with the Atlantic and Great Western Raifroad at Saimanca. The shortening of distance on the Erie road is about 70 nultes; the building of a railroad bridge across Niagara near Buffaio, a structure that will cost some tive million of dollars, and the extension of branches of the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad from all principal points where the main track is laid. This enterprise will involve the expediture of a hundred millioned. involve the expenditure of a hundred mil-lion dollars, without taking into consideraion the real design of these European capitalists, viz: The shortening of the route to the East Indies by the Grand Railroad cross the American continent.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.-Col. James L. Orr as accepted the comination for Governor of South Carolina.

Chief Engineer Wood's torpedo has met with favor in Europe, and Donald McKay is making arrangements with the British Government for their use in the harbors of that country. Permits for sending ammunition South have been granted till Saturday night to the following amount: Number of fowling pieces 103; number of pounds of powder 330 for shooting and 115 for blasting—total 3,423. Number of pounds of the time kind of shot for gaming 2,552.

Negro the Subject of Discussion.

NEW YORK, October 2.-The Herald's Washington special says: About the mid-dle of last month General Baker received information of a plot at Lynchburg, Va., to rob the Post Quartermaster's safe of a large amount of mouey it was known to contain.

amount of mouey it was known to contain. The case worked up, and has resulted in the arrest and incarceration in the Old Capitol Prison, last night, of Brevet Brigadier General J. C. Briscoe, of the 109th Pennsylvania volunteers, commanding the post at Lynchburg, and A. W. Lackey, of Worcester, Mass., formerly a sutler at that place. General Briscoe is an Irishman by birth, and has been in command of the post at Lynchburg since Lee's surrender. Captain W. A. Alberger, son of Canal Commissioner Alberger, of New York, has been Quartermaster of Lynchburg, and had in his charge on the 21st of September, $120,000 in greenbacks, besides a large amount of captured on the 21st of September, $120,000 in green-backs, besides a large amount of captured gold, coin and builion, which had been I laced in his charge for safe-keeping. Briscoe approached Alberger through Lackey, and proposed to him, as the war was about to close and none of them had was about to close and mone of them had made money out of it, they should make a grand haul in concert and pocket $50,000 apiece in a flash. Alberger kep, the funds in a safe which formerly belonged to a rebel officer, and this fact was to give color to the charge which was to be made, that, the example of the charge which was to be made, that, the example of the charge which was to be made, that the example of the charge which was to be made, that the example of the charge which was to be made, that the example of the charge which was to be made, that the example of the charge which was to be made, that the example of the charge which was to be made, that the example of the charge which was to be made, that the example of the charge which was to be made, that the example of the charge which was to be made, that the example of the charge which was to be made, that the example of the charge which was to be made, that the example of the charge which was to be made, that the example of the charge which was to be made, that the example of the charge which was to be made, that the example of the charge which was to be made, that the example of the charge which was to be made, that the example of the charge which was to be made, that the example of the charge which was to be made, that the example of the charge which was to be made, that the example of the charge which was to be made of the charge which was to be with the charge which was to be with the charge which w rebel having a duplicate key to the safe, had robbed it. Briscoe was to ar est the Quartermaster, his clerks, and half the people of Lynchburg to avert suspicion.

The General took an impression of the safe key in wax, and Lieut. Lackey went to Philadelphia to get the key made. Alberger was astensibly engaged in the plot, and informed the Secretary of War, and two or three of Gen. Baker's officers were sent down to Lynchburg, to arrest the guilty parties. These officers saw through the holes in the ceiling of the office. General Griscoe came in while the quartermaster and his clerks were gone to dinner; saw him unlock the safe with the false key, take out three packages of greenbacks of forty thou-sand dollars each, and load himself down with coin and bullion to the amount of near fifteen thousand dollars, having previously ignited saturated paper and cloth with a view to burning the building. They follow-ed him across the hall of his own office, and burst in on him, where they found him counting and arranging the money behind

The wax molds and false keys were found upon him, and the proof indisputable. These proofs are now in General Baker's possession. Briscoe and Luckey are in the Old Capitol awaiting trial, and Alberger, est Quariermaster, is on duty at his Colonel Simpson, of the Engineer Corps, who is specially detailed for service in the Department of the Interior, left here a few days ago for a tour of inspection over the ferty-mile of the Kansas branch of the l'acitic railroad. He arrived at St. Louis yesterday on his way thither, and he will act on this mission in conjunction with Gov. Crawford, of Kansas, and Harvey Scott, of Indiana, who accompany him. resolutions complimentary to Hon. D. L. Wardlow. The present Constitution gives to every white man of full age the right of voting who has been two years a citizen of the State, and who is not a pauper, nor a non commissioned officer or private sol-dier in the army, nor seaman or marine of the navy of the United States.

An amendment introduced by Gen. Con-ner confers the right to vote upon European immigrants who have declared their intention of becoming citizens of the U. States two years previous to the day of election und have resided six mouths in the election district.

The first election for Governor and Lieutenant Governor will be held in conjunction with the elections to the General As-sembly, on the third Wednesday of the present month. A request was signed by all the members of the convention to in-duce Colonel J. How to announce himself as a candidate.

Further details have been received respecting the war in South America. The Paraguayans were actively pushing forward, while their opponents, the allied forces, remained motionless, but concentrated at Concordia waiting the attack. The Braziliau fleet, on Porona river, had commenced a retrograde movement, fearing that the Paraguayans would construct batteries below so as to gain command of the

The magnitude which this struggle is as suming may be estimated from the fact that at the date of our latest advices there were 113,000 men under arms, of whom 56,-000 were Paraguayans and 57,000 allies.

Three American vessels were injured during the late gale at Monteveido, the bark Edith Ross losing three sailors.

Maximilian's Consul is this city has made public a proclamation of his Govern-ment repudiating President Juarez and all his deeds, declaring, of course, that it will not be held responsible for its contracts. The Heraid's Jackson, Miss., correspondent says: The political canvass in the State appears to have proceeded on queer issues. The sailent features of the Republican and Democratic platforms elsewhere seem to be wanting in Mississippi. The negro comes to the surface there as elsewhere, but the people are more anxious to make him work than to give him the right of voting. The planters fear an emigration of their colored laborers to the large towns, where more lu-crative employment can be had, and, on failing in this employment, they anticipate that the negro will become a vagrant, and rely on the State for support.

Accordingly they urge that an act of Congress should be passed to permit cotton-growing States to make such laws as will compel the negro to work for a stipulation our Jackson correspondent states that the candidates who advocate this course will undoubtedly be elected, and that no man who argued against it would have the slightest chance in the State. There is absolutely no discussion on the suffrage question. The feeling is so strong against that no one ventures to argue per contra.

The editor of the Mississippian, who suggested that the Legislature was bound to admit negro evidence in the law courts, met with such a storm of opposition that he was compelled at once to take back and eat his own words.

where the military are withdrawn.

Philadelphia, October 2.—Quite a sensation was produced in St. Mark's Episcopal Church on Sunday by the appearance of the Rev. Dr. Welmer. Dr. Welmer was the pastor of the church before the war, and his secession proclivities induced him to leave and go South with a large amount of baggage, which was detained at Fortress Mouroe by the Government.

The Rev. Doctor appeared in the chancil to assist in celebrating the Holy Communion Service, and this was the signal for a large portion of the copgregation to leave

NEW YORK, October 2.—The World's correspondent says: General Palmer, commanding in Kentucky, had an interview with the President yesterday in relation to the military situation there. Gen. Palmer does not agree with Governor Bramlette and the Kentucky delegation who were here a few days ago that it was necessary to remove negro troops from Kentucky. One thing is certain, General Palmer has not been removed from his command. It is not improbable that the troops will be Action of S. SYMPTOMS.

CURE WARRANTED If directions are followed.

The Symtoms of Catarrh are at first very slight. Perone find they have a cold, then they have from tacks, and are more sensitive to the changes of tempera-ture. In this condition, the mess may be dry, or a sight discharge, thin and acrid, afterward thick and adhesive creased in quantity and changed in quality; they are now hick and beavy, and are hawked or coughed off. The se-cretions are offensive, causing a bad breath; the voice thick and nasal; the eyes are weak; the sense of smell ! essened or destroyed; deafness frequently takes place.

Another common and important symptom of Catarrhis thal the person is obliged to clear his throat in the morn. Ing of a tulck or slinly muceus, which has fallen from: he head during the night. When this takes place the person may be sure that his disease is on its way to the lungs and should lese no time in arresting it. The above are but few of the many Catarrhal symptoms
